Charges Against the Edison Electric

Monopoly Made in Open Court. In a suit which is in progress to-day before be in the United States Court, the war of the Edison General Electric Company against other electrical apparatus ises to become very bi ter. The charge is made, and it will probably be the principal point at issue, that the Edison Company has and will introduce several important new become a Trust of the most vicious character, such as is forbidden as well by the laws On the third Friday in February George of the United States as by the laws of the State of New York.

The validity of the Edison patents for incandescent electric tampr having been established by the courts the present action is in the nature of a suit by that Company to restrain the Sawyor-Man Company from manufacturing or selling incandescent lamps.

George Westinghouse, jr., one of the chief parties in interest, tells in an affidavit how the Edison Company, in addition to its efforts to prevent the use or sale of incandescent lamps, endeavors to prevent the sale or use of dynames or other electrical machinery not manufactured and sold by itself, and cites a circular of instructions to agents sent out by the Edison Company.

The Sawyer-Man Company argues that it should be allowed proper time to wind up its affairs as far as incandescent lamp manufacture is concerned, and asks for an order compelling the Edison Company to sell to it incandescent lam, a.c., which are protected to it by patent, that the other company may lumit its contracts made in good faith.

Counsel for the Edison interests comprise the law frms of byer & Seely, Clarence A. Seward, Grosvenor F. Lowrey and Richard N. Dyer. Opposing are Kerr & Curtis, Elihu Root, B. A. Duncan and E. Wetmore.
